

Looking back, moving forward: 70 years of Environmental Archaeology in Ireland

Programme

- 09.30–10.00 Registration
- SESSION 1
- 10.00–10.10 Welcome and introduction
Meriel McClatchie
- 10.10–10.30 Wetlands and woodlands – from Littleton to Lisheen
Ellen O Carroll et al.
- 10.30–10.50 Secrets of the bog revealed – the National Museum of Ireland Bog Bodies Research Project
Isabella Mulhall et al.
- 10.50–11.00 Discussion
- 11.00–11.30 Tea break and Poster display
- SESSION 2
- 11.30–11.50 Methodological and conceptual advances in understanding climate impacts on past cultures
Gill Plunkett et al.
- 11.50–12.10 A bumper harvest: refining the case for early medieval agriculture in Ireland
Orla-Peach Power et al.
- 12.10–12.30 ‘Of man, rat, flea and microbe’*: New understandings of medieval life from urban environmental archaeology
Eileen Reilly et al.
- 12.30–12.45 Overview
Mick Monk
- 12.45–13.00 Discussion
- 13.00–14.00 Lunch and Poster Display
Attendees to make own arrangements for lunch
Restaurant at Botanic Gardens will be open
- SESSION 3
- 14.00–16.00 Discussion
Interactive discussion to examine research priorities, professional practice, educational and training opportunities/gaps, data and materials curation and accessibility
Session will include break-out groups and general discussion
All conference attendees will be encouraged to participate
Announcement of poster prize
- 16.00 Finish